

Fig. 2. The life-course variation pattern of coefficients a and b. The solid line represents the mean values across ages, and the shaded area indicates the range between the 5th and 95th percentiles. The data from America was specially categorized according to the experiment. The hyperbolic weight-height constraint model: 1 = a/Weight + b×Height.